

CATCH A DREAM

JOIN THE NATION

JOIN THE NATION

Cam Bomberry Mohawk Stars and Iroquois Bantam Coach

- Worked his way through the Six Nation's minor league box lacrosse program and began playing for St. Catherine's Junior A team when he was 15; finished off his Junior career back with the Six Nations Arrows, where his team won the Minto Cup in 1992
- Played NCAA lacrosse with Nazareth College from 1990 to 1994 in Rochester, New York, where he also helped his team claim an NCAA championship title in 1992
- On top of his minor league and college achievements, was able to play professionally for eight seasons in the NLL with the Buffalo Bandits, the Rochester Knighthawks, and the New Jersey Storm
- On the OLA circuit, participated in three Mann Cup titles with Six Nations Chiefs
- Played for the U-19 Canadian National team in 1988, and was a four-time member of Iroquois' National team; finished his playing career summer of 2006 at the World's tournament in London with Iroquois

- Helped start the men's field team, Six Nations Warriors, as a player/coach; still coaching the Mohawk Stars Senior B team, as well as serving as the head coach for the Iroquois Bantam team
- Hopes to help the young student-athletes with their player development and their overall experience of the academic opportunity offered and hopes to guide his players through a few championships, and build good, solid young individuals